

DECISION No 1

From: the Stewards

Date: August 25, 2022

To: Car No. 46

Time (decision): 17:30

Competitor: ACA Škoda Vančík Motorsport, Crew : Střítecký Dominik / Hovorka Jiří

The Stewards, having received a report from the Technical Delegate (Document No 6.1) have considered the following matter, determine the following:

Session: Pre-event technical scrutineering

Fact: Missing FIA sticker on the rollcage

Offence: Breach of FIA RRSR Article 251.2.1.8 of Appendix J

Decision: To impose a fine of 500€, according to Articles 11.9.1, 11.9.3.a, 11.9.3.f, 12.3.1, 12.4.1.C of FIA ISC.

Fines: In accordance with Article 12.8 of the FIA International Sporting Code, fines shall be paid within 48 hours of their notification on the website <https://fiafines.fia.com>

Reason: For FIA championships, the FIA technical passport of WRC, S2000-Rally, Rally1, Rally2 and R-GT cars must be presented at scrutineering for the competition.

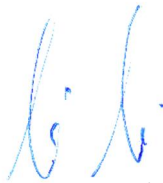

In addition, the markings linked to the technical passport must not be removed under any circumstances.

The team manager explained that the car was completely repaired, and they did not notice that the sticker had been removed. There is an ongoing process for the replacement of this sticker.

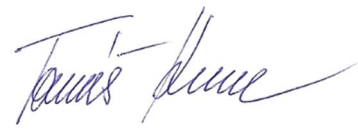

Competitors are reminded that they have the right to appeal certain decisions of the Stewards, in accordance with Article 15 of the FIA International Sporting Code and Article 9.1.1 of the FIA Judicial and Disciplinary Rules, within the applicable time limits.
